The demands of the miners include:

1. A ten per cent wage increase.
2. Adoption of the "check-off," a system whereby the operator subtracts from the worker's pay-check the amount of the annual dues and pay this to the union.
3. Equalization of wages for day laborers.

There are several minor demands.

The operators have refused flatly to grant any demand of the miners which would "affect production costs."

Washington, Aug. 28.—The federal government and the American public generally regard the almost inevitable hard coal strike on September 1st with utmost calm.

The government has no intention of intervening to bring about a settlement and has made no move in the situation beyond a survey of methods to be adopted to show free movement of hard coal substitutes.

The public has not responded to strike threats with panicky buying as in the past and as a result prices are firm without skyward boosting. Small increases have been registered in some localities, but not enough to affect general price levels.

Anthracite stored at the mines constitute but a six weeks' supply. If the strike is over by October 15th there will be no apparent shortage whatever. If it runs beyond that date substitutes may be drawn on.

100,000 MINERS PREPARE FOR SUSPENSION OF WORK

Wilkesbarre, Aug. 28.—With a scant three days of operation before the coal shutdown order becomes effective, the 100,000 anthracite miners in the upper anthracite region settled down today to rigid preparations for suspension.

Collieries are fully manned so that local storage yards and those on the seaboard may be well stocked before work halts Monday night.

A fuel shortage in this district probably will not be acute for three months.

MAINTENANCE MEN TO REMAIN AT POSTS

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—Maintenance men employed in the anthracite mines will remain at their posts during the period of the strike called for September 1st, according to an agreement reached by operators and miners representatives on the anthracite board of conciliation which met here today.

SOFT COAL PRICES REGISTER ADVANCE

Columbus, O., Aug. 28.—Soft coal prices in many sections of Ohio and West Virginia soared overnight, registering increases of from 25 cents to $1.50 a ton, presumably in anticipation of the hard coal strike.

Pocahontas coal produced in the West Virginia fields and considered the best substitute for anthracite has increased $1 a ton in prices for three days and hundreds of cars were reported loaded and ready for shipment to the hard coal consuming regions.

H. F. Horner, state's attorney, John C. Ross, sheriff, Walter and Arthur Quam, deputy sheriffs, and C. S. Whittlesey, business man, are named in the first suit as defendants.

Injuries, mental and physical, are charged in the suit.

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 28.—Charges of embezzlement of $296,416 of state funds will be prosecuted against A. W. Ewert, former treasurer of the Rural Credits Board, Governor Carl Gunderson said today. Ewert was arrested late Thursday and waived preliminary examination.

Governor Gunderson asked Ewert for an accounting last February when he dismissed him from office following legislative investigation.

Demand was made upon Ewert last May for a settlement and no funds were paid. A. C. Berneau, comptroller of the Rural Credits Board, reported the shortages and on May 15th Ewert was bound over to the circuit court on charges of misappropriating $180,000 of Rural Credits funds. How much of this is involved in the new action is not revealed.

KLAN HEADS OPPOSE BAN UPON PUBLICITY

Buckeye Lake, O., Aug. 28.—Shrouded in secrecy the international council of the Ku Klux Klan convened in final session today with threat of peremptory banishment for any member found giving news of the proceedings to newspapers.

The news censorship was clamped on when newspapers published the speech of H. K. Ramsey, Kansas City, Mo., an imperial officer, who called upon the Klan to return to public masking and secret membership.

Resolutions providing "drastic punishment for offenders" were drafted and the imperial kladd, called the "voice of the council," was the only klansman authorized to issue bulletins.

Dr. Young strangled himself to death yesterday with a piece of copper wire taken from the radio apparatus in his cell. The dentist tuned in on a news item two nights ago describing a similar suicide in an eastern city, it was said and displayed unusual interest. It is believed he started planning his self-destruction at this time with the same cunning that marked the slaying of his wife for which the state was asking to have him hanged.

LARGEST RELIGIOUS GATHERING

WORLD

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 28.—The international eucharistic congress to be held here next summer June 20 to 25, will be the largest religious gathering in the history of the world, according to Cardinal Mundelein who is calling the congress as a tribute to Pope Pius. More than 2,000,000 Catholics from all over the world are expected to attend.

"Half of the Catholic world will empty itself into our city for this occasion," Cardinal Mundelein told the body of prominent Chicago churchmen which is to have charge of preparations for the gathering. "Two million visitors must be provided for without impeding the progress of the city."

The Cardinal said both he and Pope Pius had faith the Chicago congress would exceed spiritually and physically every similar event in history. It is planned to have 3,000 extra priests here the opening day of the congress to hear confessions and hold communion services for the thousands who will worship together.

Mass In Park

The second day of the congress will be dedicated to children of the faith. The mass of the holy angels will be sung in the open at one of the municipal parks. Msgr. C. J. Quille, a member of the committee in charge, said he expected 50,000 children would participate in the service.

The following day Catholic women will attend a mass to be said by some foreign Cardinal. More than 10,000 nuns will sing the service. That night a great mass meeting for men will be held. A site for this gathering is not yet chosen.

As a climax to the congress, a vast religious procession including all the pilgrims will be held on the grounds of St. Mary at the Lake seminary at

New York, Aug. 28.—After 73 days at sea in a 45-foot yawl, the Farhannet, three hardy Norwegian mariners have arrived here safely and are on their way to Minneapolis and St. Paul to attend the Norwegian Centennial celebration which ended last June. Beaten by storms which harried their little craft for a month without cessation, the men were thirty days overdue. They were in good shape, however, and had replenished their supply of drinking water by catching rain in a sail.

Andreas Grisonot, the skipper, Wickstram, a coastal pilot, and Gresend, sailor and cook, set out from Dronnoey, Norway, on June 15th, and the yawl was not reported until it slipped into quarantine at 3 p. m. Thursday. The men are going to Minneapolis and St. Paul by train as their stay is limited.

They plan to return to New York and sail for home in the Farhannet early in September before the equinoctial gales commence. The yawl is a strong, little craft ketchrigged with a 15-foot beam of 12 tons.

"This is to be a great sermon, a religious revival that will demonstrate to the people of our land who have been so decent and so fair to people of our faith, the belief and the trust that is in our hearts, our faith in the living, our ever-present God," Cardinal Mundellien said of this final demonstration.

Applications for reservations are already flooding Chicago clergymen. Large groups in Europe have signified their intentions of attending. A group of 500 will come from one country alone, according to reports.

"The event is already advertised throughout the world as to create a desire everywhere to enter with us in this demonstration," said Bishop E. F. Hoban, recently returned from Europe. "It will be indeed the most international eucharistic congress ever held anywhere in the world."

Chicago, Aug. 28.—More than 40 postal clerks were in custody today in connection with a plot to rob the air mails between Chicago and San Francisco.

One of the clerks is said to have revealed the entire plan to federal authorities.

Thus far postal inspectors have declined to make public all details of the scheme.

It was learned, however, that government authorities first suspected something when a telegram was received from San Francisco reporting that a valuable pouch of air mail which left Chicago Tuesday had not reached the Pacific coast up until last night. Postoffice records indicated something of this sort had happened once before so inspectors were called in at once and began working on the case.

PASSED AWAY

Former Brainerd Merchant Died at General Hospital, Minneapolis

WAS NATIVE OF ST. JOSEPH

Was Always Active in Civic Affairs And Community Betterment

Henry W. Linnemann, former Brainerd merchant, passed away on Thursday evening at the General hospital, Minneapolis. No details concerning his last illness and death were given in the brief message received by relatives in the city.

Mr. Linnemann was born July 20th, 1867, at St. Joseph, Minn. He came to Brainerd while still a young man, and lived here until a few years ago. He was married to Miss Emily Murphy, to whom three children were born, the Misses Anna and Marion Linnemann, and John Linnemann.

First associated with John Carlson in the clothing business, and later operating a clothing store alone in the old Imperial block, Mr. Linnemann became well known in the city and surrounding territory, and made many friends, who will regret to learn of his passing. He was also

"I Can't Spend It When I Haven't Got It"

This is the way one young fellow puts it. "I can't spend money when it's in the bank," he says.

He has learned that loose change in the pocket has a habit of dissolving—disappearing—slipping away mysteriously. And the hole through which it slips is at the top.

No, it isn't human nature to hang onto a loose dollar when it is continually calling on you to spend it. The safest way is to put that dollar in a savings account and then tell yourself it is gone. Forget it entirely.

Then some bright morning you'll wake up to find yourself in possession of a nice big bank account.

Dimes soon become dollars in a savings account. They take root in the fertile soil of compound interest and grow and grow. Come in and talk to us about a savings account.

much interested in politics, and for a time was city treasurer. He was always active in civic affairs and in community betterment.

Surviving him, besides his family living in Brainerd, are four sisters, and three brothers, Miss Bertha Linnemann in New York City, Mrs. D. E. Regan, of Twin Falls, Idaho, Mrs. H. N. Richardson, of Minneapolis, and Mrs. L. M. Koop, of Jamestown, N. D., Herman Linnemann, of Crosby, Alphonse, of Duluth, and Joseph of St. Joseph. One brother, Nicholas, of Duluth, passed away several years ago.

Mr. Linnemann, while in Brainerd was a member of the Elks, the Eagles and Knights of Columbus lodges, in which he took an active interest.

Funeral arrangements could not be learned, but it is thought that burial will be made at St. Joseph on Saturday.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1925

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

MERCHANTS in 23 American cities, wishing to speed up collections, recently conducted cooperative newspaper campaigns to impress upon customers the advantages all around of paying their bills promptly. In 21 cities the campaigns were decidedly successful, while in the other two, both small communities, they were conducted but half-heartedly. These results were reported at the convention of the Retail Credit Men's National association in Minneapolis.

One lesson gleaned from this experience is that chronically slow payers are not dishonest, as a rule, but merely careless. Another lesson is that the daily newspaper is the one and only agency through which the whole public may be speedily reached at a given time. Everybody who can read at all reads some newspaper, and reads it pretty regularly, too. That the matter which fills the advertising space is read as diligently, and heeded as fully, as the matter which fills the news space was demonstrated in the cities that conducted "pay promptly" campaigns.

And that is another reason why the newspaper should guard its advertising columns as carefully and zealously as it guards its news columns. All reputable newspapers vigilantly strive to keep false information out of their news pages. And the more discriminating dailies strive just as vigilantly to keep false claims out of their advertising pages.

THE VANDAL INSTINCT

In his "periodical of protest," E. W. Howe, usually tolerant of the masses, has reached the conclusion that perhaps the genus homo isn't 100 per cent perfect. He protests:

"Years ago, as a newspaper editor, I made a campaign to induce some one to establish a free club for men. A gentleman undertook the enterprise and was compelled to close it, owing to vandalism. Every public place open to everyone must be expensively guarded by policemen. The proletarians, instead of being the pride of the country, as they claim, are its shame."

People who plan and plant their own gardens and parks at great expense in money and labor protect and preserve them, but those who must depend upon the philanthropy and charity of others for these delights want only to destroy them. The latter appreciate and take advantage of these privileges, but they can not preserve them. Paying members of exclusive clubs do not mar the walls and pillage their rooms, and yet vandalism closed the doors of a similar club given to the poor without cost to them.

Vandalism is the bad habit of the multitude which deters the more fortunate from helping the less fortunate and which causes the philanthropist and friend of the poor to throw up his hands and cry, "What's the use?"—Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

SWATTING THE FLY

We may not all be Babe Ruths when we enter the batter's box in a baseball game, but at fly time we can grab a swatter and bat 100 per cent. The flies are particularly bad at this season. They really bite.

The fly and the mosquito should be exterminated, as neither seems to serve a useful purpose in the internal economy of nature. They may serve as food for certain birds, but if they do, the supply seems to be too plentiful.

To flies and mosquitoes has been ascribed the spread of many infectious diseases. The fly breeds in offal and winging his way 'cross country, alights on the baby's candy or tracks his way across the dinner table. His feet are veritable nets to catch and then distribute germs. The mosquito was fastened upon by science as being the original distributor of yellow fever and the isolation and extinction of a certain breed in malarial districts has done much to reduce the spread of that dread malady.

So buy a fly swatter, and screen well your doors and windows and you will do your part to eliminate the twin pests of flies and mosquitoes.

BRAINERD WELL TAKEN CARE OF

REPORTS from the State Highway Commission indicate that Brainerd is well taken care of in the coming road improvement program. Ostrand & Hallett of Crosby appear to be the low bidders on paving the strip from Little Falls to Brainerd and indication are apparent that the paving will start this season.

Another notice of bids let shows Ostrand & Hallett as being the probable contractor to pave a small strip in Brainerd, three-tenths of a mile on Highway No. 2, which we presume is on Laurel Street from Fifth Street to the bridge.

Brainerd thankfully accepts this improvement work which not only favorably affects this section, but is of benefit to the state at large. The prosperity of a community has over-lapping tendencies which affect contiguous territory and eventually the state as a whole.

Good roads is the foundation of tourist trade.

ADVERTISING BUILT UP BUSINESS

WRIGLEY, the chewing gum man, has explained how he built up a business of millions of packages a day. He has done it by sticking to his own line and advertising it. Advertising has spread the use of his gum from shore to shore in America and foreign countries are now being invaded to further increase sales.

He spends over a million dollars a year in buying newspaper space to tell the world about his five cent chewing gum. He has educated people to chew gum and to chew Wrigley's.

To get the full value of advertising, one must follow the Wrigley plan. Advertise regularly, continuously and with suitable change of copy. Advertise in season and out of season. One may have a standard article on the market, established and seemingly secure in public favor, but if advertising is diminished or abandoned, the popularity won is speedily lost. Out of sight is out of mind.

OUR town is just what we make it, says the Dassel Dispatch. If you don't like the town, you will probably find the town doesn't like you. But if you have the right attitude then you will find the community friendly.

CASE SETTLED

Complaint Filed Against Village of Keewatin Settled Out of Court

STIPULATIONS ARE SIGNED

Expenditures of Village Set at $13,000 For July, $12,000 For August

The case of the Bennett Mining Co., and the McKinney Steel Co., against the village of Keewatin, on the Misabe range, which was set for trial Thursday before Judge McClellan in chambers, was settled out of court by representatives of both parties.

This case involved the matter of the village making tax levies for certain funds, particularly the fire and library funds, and not using the moneys for the purposes for which they were levied, but placing them in the general fund instead.

Both parties to the case agreed to stipulations which were signed by the court in which the plaintiffs waived all sections in their complaint affecting the actions of the village of Keewatin previous to July 1st, 1925, and agreed to the expenditure of approximately $13,000 for the month of July and $12,000 for the month of August.

The village of Keewatin agrees by the stipulations to keep the various funds of the village separate and to use these funds only for the purposes for which they were intended.

Naughton and Henley, of Keewatin, were attorneys for that village, and D. Bailey, of the firm of Washburn, Bailey and Mitchell, of Duluth, was attorney for the plaintiffs.

INSANITY PRODUCED BY SUDDEN STORMS

(By United Press)

London, Aug. 28.—The sudden change of barometric pressure accompanying a sudden storm changes a person's pulse rate and occasionally drives him insane.

Captain J. R. Muir of the Royal Naval Hospital at Haslar advanced this startling theory in connection with the death of a patient at the hospital who jumped to his death from a window during a recent storm. "Impulses to do odd things are accentuated or brought about by sudden changes in atmosphere pressure," declared Capt. Muir in testifying at the patient's inquest. "When these changes are very marked and sudden the difficulty is to keep people sane. A sudden fall in the barometer produces impulses to jump or otherwise act rashly."

The patient, who was in the hospital for treatment of an injured toe, Capt. Muir said, he'd probably been upset by the barometric change caused by the storm and had jumped from the window quite unconsciously. The jury rendered a verdict of suicide while temporarily insane.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

MERCHANTS in 23 American cities, wishing to speed up collections, recently conducted cooperative newspaper campaigns to impress upon customers the advantages all around of paying their bills promptly. In 21 cities the campaigns were decidedly successful, while in the other two, both small communities, they were conducted but half-heartedly. These results were reported at the convention of the Retail Credit Men's National association in Minneapolis.

One lesson gleaned from this experience is that chronically slow payers are not dishonest, as a rule, but merely careless. Another lesson is that the daily newspaper is the one and only agency through which the whole public may be speedily reached at a given time. Everybody who can read at all reads some newspaper, and reads it pretty regularly, too. That the matter which fills the advertising space is read as diligently, and heeded as fully, as the matter which fills the news space was demonstrated in the cities that conducted "pay promptly" campaigns.

And that is another reason why the newspaper should guard its advertising columns as carefully and zealously as it guards its news columns. All reputable newspapers vigilantly strive to keep false information out of their news pages. And the more discriminating dailies strive just as vigilantly to keep false claims out of their advertising pages.

THE VANDAL INSTINCT

In his "periodical of protest," E. W. Howe, usually tolerant of the masses, has reached the conclusion that perhaps the genus homo isn't 100 per cent perfect. He protests:

"Years ago, as a newspaper editor, I made a campaign to induce some one to establish a free club for men. A gentleman undertook the enterprise and was compelled to close it, owing to vandalism. Every public place open to everyone must be expensively guarded by policemen. The proletarians, instead of being the pride of the country, as they claim, are its shame."

People who plan and plant their own gardens and parks at great expense in money and labor protect and preserve them, but those who must depend upon the philanthropy and charity of others for these delights want only to destroy them. The latter appreciate and take advantage of these privileges, but they can not preserve them. Paying members of exclusive clubs do not mar the walls and pillage their rooms, and yet vandalism closed the doors of a similar club given to the poor without cost to them.

Vandalism is the bad habit of the multitude which deters the more fortunate from helping the less fortunate and which causes the philanthropist and friend of the poor to throw up his hands and cry, "What's the use?"—Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

SWATTING THE FLY

We may not all be Babe Ruths when we enter the batter's box in a baseball game, but at fly time we can grab a swatter and bat 100 per cent. The flies are particularly bad at this season. They really bite.

The fly and the mosquito should be exterminated, as neither seems to serve a useful purpose in the internal economy of nature. They may serve as food for certain birds, but if they do, the supply seems to be too plentiful.

To flies and mosquitoes has been ascribed the spread of many infectious diseases. The fly breeds in offal and winging his way 'cross country, alights on the baby's candy or tracks his way across the dinner table. His feet are veritable nets to catch and then distribute germs. The mosquito was fastened upon by science as being the original distributor of yellow fever and the isolation and extinction of a certain breed in malarial districts has done much to reduce the spread of that dread malady.

World Premier French Horn Artist at Fair at Pequot

SYMPHONY SOLOIST AND ORCHESTRA TRUMPETER ON PROGRAM

Rehearsals the past week have given some people, at least, an idea of the treat that is in store for music lovers at the Crow Wing County Fair.

Members of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra are taking a keen interest in the musical program and a wonderful entertainment has been arranged. Monday night Richard Lindenhahn and Herman Bosenroth of the orchestra accompanied Pres. Gustavson to Crosby and Mr. Lindenhahn directed the Range band in a rehearsal of an accompaniment that had been especially arranged for the program of solos, duets, trios, etc., that will be played at the fair by members of the great Minneapolis orchestra on various instruments.

It was thought at first that one night was all that could possibly be expected from these musicians, but it was announced Tuesday that a special quartette will play Tuesday night.

An idea of what is in prospect may be gained when it is stated that Mr. Lindenhahn is recognized as the premier French horn artist of the world. He is a native of Halle, Germany, and has played concerts since he was 14 years old. He came to America to join the New York Symphony Orchestra and was with them for years, coming to Minneapolis when his friend, Verbruggen, became director there. His solos are considered one of the rare musical treats offered by the Symphony programs.

Mr. Bosenroth's instrument is the trumpet, and it is said that duet of trumpet and French horn is something wonderfully fine, as are his trumpet solos. He is librarian for the Symphony orchestra, and is a composer of note.

The special quartette Tuesday will be composed of Messrs. Bosenroth, Lindenhahn, Wagner, a member also of the orchestra, and Damm, director of the Minneapolis municipal band and other city bands, who is making a special drive up because of his interest in the program. Special music for this quartette is being arranged by Mr. Bosenroth this week.

As will be noted in the program, music is a special feature of the fair this year. Two Brainerd bands, the Range band, and the Breezy Point orchestra will be on hand in addition to the Symphony players.

Ball games, races and other sports will help fill in the time. Free circus acts by talented performers will be a feature of every program. Prom-season under the auspices of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., of which Will H. Hays is president. This organization constitutes the public's voice in film production, sifting legitimate praise and legitimate criticism, and gathering popular opinion to guide those who make the pictures.

What the public thinks, combined with the artistic endeavors of producers, directors, authors and players, have effected such remarkable advances in screen art that this national demonstration is really a mutual congratulation between the 50,000,000 weekly theatre-goers and the 300,000 people engaged in the picture industry.

To insure the celebration's success as far as this city is concerned, the leading theatres have prepared programs that will focus public attention upon the screen, where the pick of new season's productions will be offered several months in advance of the date when they would have been presented under ordinary circumstances. That fact alone stimulates regular picture patrons as much as an advance showing of dress styles would quicken the interest of ninety-nine women out of every hundred. But the nature of these performances will make a strong appeal to less frequent attendants, who unfairly judge pictures today by what they were ten years ago or even last year.

In preparation for the September season increased activity has prevailed at the studios for months past. As a result every important producing company has, ready for the big event, outstanding features indicative of the new trend of screen entertainment. Greater Movie season will be brought before social literary and business clubs by well-known speakers familiar with motion pictures, who have volunteered to aid the movement. Official endorsement has already been given by organizations with memberships of millions. In arranging the entertainment the local theatres have aligned themselves with the principal New York, Chicago and San Francisco houses in order that not only the national spirit of the celebration but its national program may be enjoyed locally.

"Recalling the difference between the industry's past and present and recognizing it as the one real medium of universal amusement, the season deserves unqualified support." "It should bring out unusual pictures and unusual patrons: those who rarely go. The California Federation of Women's clubs has adopted a slogan, 'Make the Best Pictures Pay Best.' The film industry is taking them up and hoping their slogan succeeds. Previews have denoted a vast improvement in these new productions but, more than that, Greater Movie season applies also to what surrounds the screen in the way of music and atmosphere."

World Premier French Horn Artist at Fair at Pequot

SYMPHONY SOLOIST AND ORCHESTRA TRUMPETER ON PROGRAM

Rehearsals the past week have given some people, at least, an idea of the treat that is in store for music lovers at the Crow Wing County Fair.

Members of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra are taking a keen interest in the musical program and a wonderful entertainment has been arranged. Monday night Richard Lindenhahn and Herman Bosenroth of the orchestra accompanied Pres. Gustavson to Crosby and Mr. Lindenhahn directed the Range band in a rehearsal of an accompaniment that had been especially arranged for the program of solos, duets, trios, etc., that will be played at the fair by members of the great Minneapolis orchestra on various instruments.

It was thought at first that one night was all that could possibly be expected from these musicians, but it was announced Tuesday that a special quartette will play Tuesday night.

An idea of what is in prospect may be gained when it is stated that Mr. Lindenhahn is recognized as the premier French horn artist of the world. He is a native of Halle, Germany, and has played concerts since he was 14 years old. He came to America to join the New York Symphony Orchestra and was with them for years, coming to Minneapolis when his friend, Verbruggen, became director there. His solos are considered one of the rare musical treats offered by the Symphony programs.

Mr. Bosenroth's instrument is the trumpet, and it is said that duet of trumpet and French horn is something wonderfully fine, as are his trumpet solos. He is librarian for the Symphony orchestra, and is a composer of note.

The special quartette Tuesday will be composed of Messrs. Bosenroth, Lindenhahn, Wagner, a member also of the orchestra, and Damm, director of the Minneapolis municipal band and other city bands, who is making a special drive up because of his interest in the program. Special music for this quartette is being arranged by Mr. Bosenroth this week.

As will be noted in the program, music is a special feature of the fair this year. Two Brainerd bands, the Range band, and the Breezy Point orchestra will be on hand in addition to the Symphony players.

Ball games, races and other sports will help fill in the time. Free circus acts by talented performers will be a feature of every program. Prom-

WOMEN BATTLE OFF FEDERAL RAID ON STORE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 28.—Two federal agents attempted to raid a grocery store last night and two women battled them off. Scale weights, canned goods and other missiles were used in such profusion that passers-by called the fire department. Others called the police riot squad. Between police, federal agents and firemen, the women were finally subdued.

Mrs. Rosa Kuesner, 55, and Miss Mary Kuesner, 25, were jailed charged with possessing liquor for sale.

FRENCH CABINET APPROVES PRINCIPLE OF BRITISH OFFER

(By United Press)
Paris, Aug. 28.—The French cabinet approves in principle the British tentative offer of a settlement of France's more than $3,000,000,000 debt on the basis of 62 annuities of $62,500,000.

This decision was reached by a session of the cabinet members which praised Financial Minister Caillaux's accomplishment in obtaining a 2-3 reduction of the debt.

Simultaneously, the cabinet expressed the hope that America will show equal generosity.

Power of States Wide

Powers of congress are great within limits specifically laid down, but all where the powers are not mentioned. For instance congress cannot legislate on matters concerning health, labor or education of the American people. The Constitution gives congress the right to nothing except what it specifically authorizes. On the other hand the states can do anything that is not forbidden.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMEN OF 1925

SKIRTS AND KNEES

(Fashion Editor of the United Press)
New York, Aug. 27.—
Upwards, oh! upwards,
Skirts soar like a kite,
Making dames girls again
Both day and night!

At last comes a style that all women agree upon and that is — short skirts. From Boston to New Orleans the short-skirted wave finds women aligned against the long hem-line.

In New York, famous for sky-lines and hem-lines, it is not unusual to see a woman of fifty summers and as many winters, strutting her knees caps up Fifth avenue. Some of them, whom avoirdupois has given ample knee dimples, wear fancy little garters below the knee so that when the wind blows, one's attention is focused upon the garters rather than on the over-fat knee.

Odd, indeed, are the short, pudgy women whose frocks look scarcely long enough for a ten-year-old child. From a rear view one sees childish legs, a half-sized frock and bobbed hair crushed into a peanut sized bonnet. From the front one sees evidences of a varicose vein and a double chin. But—girls will be girls this year and they probably will be for some time to come, since there is no evidence of skirts getting back at half-mast.

Men have grown too blasé to take notice of feminine nether portions. It is the women who gasp at their

Facts About Fruit

Raspberries

Raspberries, hardy native Americans, suffer less from frosts in the spring than many other classes of fruit, and usually come through with a crop unless drought sets in. Drought is the most destructive force that works against the raspberries and dries them on the stem before they have filled out.

So far there have been few unfavorable reports concerning raspberries due to unseasonable conditions, and prospects seem to be as favorable as usual for a good supply of this favorite and popular midsummer berry. While the black cap is the more popular of the two types, the red raspberries which are now making their appearance in the market are preferred by many, and more of them are now being offered. The purple cane raspberry, a cross between the red and black, is another new and popular sort. Raspberries are one of the finest of the fresh summer fruits, as well as one of the finest sister's leg displays. A skirt an inch below the knee causes no comment, but one inch above the knee stirs emotions in the breasts of the Sisterhood akin to murder.

Short skirts have solved the question of "who, women dress for." A sneer from another woman is deemed a compliment worth risking the kneecap for, since none but the shapely leg deserves a sneer in these days.

Waistlines Returning

(By United Press)
London, Aug. 28.—Waistlines are coming back.

Possibly also the "Gibson Girl" type of buxom figure will be all the rage again a year or so hence, but of this fashion experts are more skeptical. Conversion of the sleek trim figured girl of today into the high-busted, round-hipped classic of the nineties, the fashionists say can't be accomplished in one short season, if indeed at all.

But the mere defining of the waistline will be easy. In fact it has already been accomplished and mid-lady's Fall clothes showing in the fashionable shops are made with high waistlines, well defined.

The waists are not so slender, however, as they used to be before the days of the straight hanging styles, and to accentuate the line it has been found necessary to make the skirts of the new gowns fairly full at the hips. The skirts, however, are remaining short.

This Is Worry

Worrying has been defined as "thinking a lot of things that are not so about something that probably will never happen." —Crusader.

"The Ten Commandments, as presented in the picture is the leader of all the photos on the screen today; and I regard it indispensable to the propagation of Christian ethics and moral courage. "The first section of the picture, depicting the Biblical story, is extremely fine, about the best thing I have seen in motion pictures. It is powerful and convincing. The realism is overdone, but I was impressed by the amazing movement, color and dramatic intensity of the unfolding tale."

EPISCOPAL

"Truly marvelous and should be productive of great good!"

—The Rev. Nathan A. Seagle, of St. Stephen's Church.

LUTHERAN

"Wonderful—that same evening I took a half hour describing the picture to my church council, advising its members to see it. This picture must rivet its wholesome teachings to the hearts of everyone seeing it. It is no use to start commenting on its different parts—it speaks for itself. What struck me as a surprise was the final picture, where Christ was introduced healing the sick,—what a happy thought. In the beginning, the Almighty, dealing with nations, with force against power abused, and finally those lovely scenes, where his Son is healing the wounds of men."

—The Rev. Joseph A. Davidson.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

"The picture 'The Ten Commandments' is absolutely beyond criticism. It carries one of the most splendid messages I have ever seen put in a picture. It will do limitless good. It has combined in a marvelous way the declarations of the Old Testament with modern life so that people must be convinced that they will reap what they sow. I have never seen anything so impressive as the way 'The Ten Commandments' appear on the screen."

—The Rev. Christian F. Reisner,
Chelsea M. E. Church.

"I have seen with very great pleasure and profit your impressive film version of 'The Ten Commandments' and the impression made on my mind will last for a long time. The atmosphere of the place was clean, helpful, and inspiring, and the crowded audience proved that a large number of people in New York City are interested in religious subjects."

"The moral in part one and two still holds true, 'that if you break any of the commandments they will break you.' I will have much pleasure in recommending it to my friends who have not seen the picture."

—The Rev. Edwin Cornelle,
Woodlawn Heights Church.

"The Ten Commandments' teaches most clearly and convincingly the truths the Church of God is ever seeking to teach,—the sovereignty of God, the fact of sin, the certainty that whatsoever a man soweth he shall also reap."

"Magnificently, with impressive dignity and rare fidelity to great truths you have taught your lesson. I trust you may reach millions of thoughtful people with your timely appeal."

—The Rev. F. B. Upham,
Old John St. M. E. Church.

PRESBYTERIAN

"I wish that every member of my Church and Sunday School could see 'The Ten Commandments.' You are preaching a most wonderful sermon, in their presentation."

—The Rev. Edward I. Goodwin,
Cumberland Street Church, Brooklyn.

"I am sure that every one who sees 'The Ten Commandments' must think again, or perhaps for the first time, of the fundamental place in our life which the Ten Commandment ought to have."

—The Rev. Russell S. Gregory,
First Presbyterian Church.

"It is by far the most impressive I ever saw. It should accomplish much good."

—The Rev. L. P. Armstrong,
Beverly Presbyterian Church, New York.

REFORMED

"Speaking at the Hanson Place M. E. Church, Brooklyn, I did not hesitate to urge that congregation of nearly 500 people to see it, for I consider it the strongest sermon preached today and I like your text 'Break the Commandments and they will break you.'"

"I want to thank you for producing such a wonderful picture, awe inspiring, thrilling, instructive, and the person who can view it without becoming better is not strictly human. . . . I heartily endorse it, and shall urge my people to see it."

—The Rev. L. G. Leggett, D. D.,
Hawthorne, N. Y.

UNIVERSALIST

"A picture that the Modernists, the Fundamentalists, and everybody else, old and young can see with such mental and spiritual profit that its worth cannot be estimated."

"I have seen it twice, shall see it again, and am planning a party of 50 boys to attend it, and thereby I believe I will be doing something for them which will be of permanent value to character and conscience. It is bound to open the eyes of many a one who thinks of life from a distorted and clouded moral and spiritual viewpoint."

—The Rev. C. J. Harris,
Washington Heights Universalist Church.

"One of the most impressive and influencing films before the public. We advise our parishioners to attend as a service of religion. The moral necessity and life dynamic of the commandments will be woven into the fibre of your consciousness by the wonderful picture."

Firestone Service to Highway Transportation

25 years of anticipating the requirements of motorists—making manufacturing processes more certain—producing a higher standard of quality—25 years of unswerving adherence to the Firestone pledge, "Most Miles per Dollar"—summarizes Firestone's record of service to car owners.

Firestone factories have grown from a small building approximately 75 x 150 feet to mammoth plants having floor area of over 60 acres—from a capital of $50,000 to over $50,000,000—from an annual sales volume of $100,000 to over $100,000,000—all in the short period of 25 years.

This Firestone record could only have been made through furnishing the public with outstanding values and is, consequently, your assurance of quality and lowest prices.

If you would like to know more of this wonderful record, ask your Firestone dealer to send you an illustrated folder.

With today's high cost of crude rubber and other raw materials, Firestone's opportunity to serve the public was never better, due to its great volume and special advantages in buying, manufacturing and distribution.

WOMEN BATTLE OFF FEDERAL RAID ON STORE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Aug. 28.—Two federal agents attempted to raid a grocery store last night and two women battled them off. Scale weights, canned goods and other missiles were used in such profusion that passers-by called the fire department. Others called the police riot squad. Between police, federal agents and firemen, the women were finally subdued.

Mrs. Rosa Kuesner, 55, and Miss Mary Kuesner, 25, were jailed charged with possessing liquor for sale.

FRENCH CABINET APPROVES PRINCIPLE OF BRITISH OFFER

(By United Press)
Paris, Aug. 28.—The French cabinet approves in principle the British tentative offer of a settlement of France's more than $3,000,000,000 debt on the basis of 62 annuities of $62,500,000.

This decision was reached by a session of the cabinet members which praised Financial Minister Caillaux's accomplishment in obtaining a 2-3 reduction of the debt.

Simultaneously, the cabinet expressed the hope that America will show equal generosity.

Power of States Wide

Powers of congress are great within limits specifically laid down, but all where the powers are not mentioned. For instance congress cannot legislate on matters concerning health, labor or education of the American people. The Constitution gives congress the right to nothing except what it specifically authorizes. On the other hand the states can do anything that is not forbidden.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMEN OF 1925

SKIRTS AND KNEES

(Fashion Editor of the United Press)
New York, Aug. 27.—
Upwards, oh! upwards,
Skirts soar like a kite,
Making dames girls again
Both day and night!

At last comes a style that all women agree upon and that is — short skirts. From Boston to New Orleans the short-skirted wave finds women aligned against the long hem-line.

In New York, famous for sky-lines and hem-lines, it is not unusual to see a woman of fifty summers and as many winters, strutting her knee-caps up Fifth avenue. Some of them, whom avoirdupois has given ample knee dimples, wear fancy little garters below the knee so that when the wind blows, one's attention is focussed upon the garters rather than on the over-fat knee.

Odd, indeed, are the short, pudgy women whose frocks look scarcely long enough for a ten-year-old child. From a rear view one sees childish legs, a half-sized frock and bobbed hair crushed into a peanut sized bonnet. From the front one sees evidences of a varicose vein and a double chin. But—girls will be girls this year and they probably will be for some time to come, since there is no evidence of skirts getting back at half-mast.

Men have grown too blasé to take notice of feminine nether portions. It is the women who gasp at their

Raspberries, hardy native Americans, suffer less from frosts in the spring than many other classes of fruit, and usually come through with a crop unless drought sets in. Drought is the most destructive force that works against the raspberries and dries them on the stem before they have filled out.

So far there have been few unfavorable reports concerning raspberries due to unseasonable conditions, and prospects seem to be as favorable as usual for a good supply of this favorite and popular midsummer berry. While the black cap is the more popular of the two types, the red raspberries which are now making their appearance in the market are preferred by many, and more of them are now being offered. The purple cane raspberry, a cross between the red and black, is another new and popular sort. Raspberries are one of the finest of the fresh summer fruits, as well as one of the finest sister's leg displays. A skirt an inch below the knee causes no comment, but one inch above the knee stirs emotions in the breasts of the Sisterhood akin to murder.

Short skirts have solved the question of "who women dress for." A sneer from another woman is deemed a compliment worth risking the kneecap for, since none but the shapely leg deserves a sneer in these days.

materials for jams, jellies and preserves. They are now long-season fruits, due to the introduction of so-called overbearing types.

In addition to the valuable mineral salts and vitamins contained in these fruits they furnish roughage, which aids in digestion, in the seeds. The colonists found raspberries growing wild when they first settled the country, although they brought their own European types with them, and for years they endeavored to improve and adapt the European type, but although of fine quality, it did not become thoroughly acclimated, so the native American is the foundation of our raspberry supply.

Raspberry jam and marmalade, pound for pound with sugar, as well as raspberry jelly and canned raspberries are standard household supplies. At the present time there seems to be every prospect of the usual supply of these berries.

Waistlines Returning

(By United Press)
London, Aug. 28.—Waistlines are coming back.

Possibly also the "Gibson Girl" type of buxom figure will be all the rage again a year or so hence, but of this fashion experts are more skeptical. Conversion of the sleek trim figured girl of today into the high-busted, round-hipped classic of the nineties, the fashionists say can't be accomplished in one short season, if indeed at all.

But the mere defining of the waistline will be easy. In fact it has already been accomplished and milady's Fall clothes showing in the fashionable shops are made with high waistlines, well defined.

The waists are not so slender, however, as they used to be before the days of the straight hanging styles, and to accentuate the line it has been found necessary to make the skirts of the new gowns fairly full at the hips. The skirts, however, are remaining short.

BAPTIST

"The Ten Commandments, as presented in the picture is the leader of all the photos on the screen today; and I regard it indispensable to the propagation of Christian ethics and moral courage. THEO. TINKELPAUGH
BREADED HIS LAST

VERNDALF AND VERY MUCH LIKED MAN

(From Verndale Sun)
Theodore Tinkelpaugh, one of this town's founders, having come here in the year 1877 and helped Judge Smith lay out the town, died at his home in this city Monday noon, Aug. 24th of cancer. The deceased had been enjoying fair health up until a year ago when he had gone to the hospital at Brainerd where operations were performed in an effort to lengthen his life. He returned home and for a time appeared to be improving but several weeks ago he began weakening and has failed ever since that time. His suffering was intense at times but his strong will and courage kept him alive longer than it was thought possible. In the passing of Mr. Tinkelpaugh, this town loses one of its few pioneer citizens and the only man left who could give you the full history of Verndale from its beginning, telling of the trails and troubles of those early days but always telling little of the troubles, as he was one of those men that seemed to be able to live and make a success of things under the most adverse conditions. He possessed the iron nerve of those older men and although but slight in physique, when a daring or brave act had to be accomplished, it was always "Thea" who was chosen and he could manage these things so simply and well that after they were over one imagined that there was nothing to it and quickly lost sight of the fact that it was his way of managing that made them lose their importance.

Theodore Tinkelpaugh was married to Letitia C. Clark March 9th, 1872, in Nashua, Chickasaw County, Iowa and came to Verndale in the year 1877 where he followed different occupations until 1898 when he together with twelve other men went to Alaska to seek their fortune in the gold fields, which at that time were attracting many. The hardships and adventures of this band of men were numerous. After their return here Mr. Tinkelpaugh was appointed deputy sheriff in which position he served for 24 years always performing his duty in a fearless manner and at the same time in a just and gentlemanly way. His friends were many and after his passing the value of the man will be appreciated the more as his unassuming manner made him appear of less value in this world than he really was.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Tinkelpaugh, Cecil Fournier of Tacoma, Wash., and Robert of Brainerd. Besides these and a devoted wife two grand children, Marlys and James Tinkelpaugh, remain to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon and burial was made in the beautiful green lawn cemetery that day.

Thrills and Action in "Raffles"
Movie

A rapid mystery melodrama of stirring situations is "Raffles," the Universal-Jewel photoplay which opened at the Lyceum Theatre yesterday.

House Peters in the title rôle plays the amateur crackman with great skill and histrionic ability. He gives a reserved, careful delineation of the most entertaining of fiction sleuths. Although the "Raffles" stories were written more than thirty years ago by Ernest W. Hornung and Eugene Presbrey, they have continued to be popular with readers of all ages. Both young and old will revel in the exciting situations in the present production. Drama runs rampant in this King Baggot production, which has its last showings tonight.

New Barthelmess Film is His Best

As the young musical genius of "Soul Fire," his newest First National vehicle, which will be shown at the New Park tonight and Saturday, Richard Barthelmess scores the hit of his career. We put ourselves on record as saying this, even with clear and vivid memories of his fine performances in "Broken Blossoms," "Tolable David," "The Enchanted Cottage," "Classmates" and "New Toys."

His playing of Eric Fane, the young American seeking to express himself in music, is a remarkable contrast to his recent comedy performances of the young husband in "New Toys," it might be added. Here Mr. Barthelmess returns to the heights of tragedy. He achieves a number of fine moments of poignancy, of movie wistfulness and of powerful drama. His Eric Fane will be remembered when most of the celluloid performances of the current screen year are long forgotten.

"The Ten Comandments" Broke Long Run Records

The picture which broke all long run records at road show prices is coming to the New Park Sunday for a run of four days, when Cecil B. DeMille's production of "The Ten Comandments" opens an engagement there at popular prices. Playing the "two-a-day" in New York City, it broke the record of 59 weeks which had been held by "The Covered Wagon," remaining at capacity business for 62 consecutive weeks. "The Birth of a Nation" was only able to last 44 weeks on Broadway, while "Way Down East," "The Four Horsemen," and "The Thief of Bagdad" held up for a lesser period. About five million people have seen this remarkable picture since it was first shown at a two dollar scale.

Marvelous Incidents in "Bagdad"
Film

Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in the amazing picture, taken from the Arabian Nights, "The Thief of Bagdad,"—a picture that is said to be away and beyond anything yet seen on the Silver Screen. This lovely story of romance and adventure abounds, according to all accounts, in happenings of astounding and unbelievable magic. Nothing like it has ever been attempted, nothing like it has ever been seen, nothing like it has ever been accomplished. This beautifully fanciful story, born of a poet's dream in Araby, was made into an entrancing reality by Douglas Fairbanks, and will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre for three days only, starting Sunday, at popular prices.

Nearly thirty persons, some of them college graduates, applied for a certain position in the Cincinnati public library, but only eight scored a passing mark in the examination.

The Pathfinder's poetry machine and its relation to poetic licenses must have been uppermost in the mind for the candidate who said that one of the grants of high office bestowed on a poet laureate was "certain privileges called poetic license."

Another candidate defined Sleepy Hollow as a "hollow in Kentucky that has become the setting of several books."

Marco Polo, according to one, "was the first man to try and reach the North pole."

"Before the break with England, Henry Clay uttered those immortal words, 'Give me liberty or give me death,'" wrote another.

Madame Curie was credited with being founder of the Christian Science church. "Robinson Crusoe" was said to have been the work of Robert Louis Stevenson.

Lotteries Have Firm
Hold on All Italians

The national sport of Italy is the lottery. It is the popular sport of all classes. There are many kinds of lotteries, but the one which seems to hold the popular favor is the weekly one. The charm of this weekly lottery lies in the fact that the buyer of a ticket can play a hunch. Since all Italians are superstitious, it is only natural that each has a particular "hunch" on the winning numbers in the lottery.

The eight largest cities in the kingdom are listed and after each city five numbers appear. Should anyone have an idea that Naples would draw 4, 18, 87, 34, 52, it is simplicity itself to back your hunch. You simply walk into an agency and write your own ticket. The numbers do not have to be arranged in the same sequence as drawn. For example, in the case above cited if the purchaser had selected the numbers in inverse order, or in any other order he would still win the maximum purse.—Detroit News.

Tested Patrons' Hospitality

Stepping into a taxicab the other day, says the Paris Intransigent, a fare discovered a package of chocolate lying on the seat. Without hesitation he put it in his pocket, paid the chauffeur, adding a good pourboire, and was about to depart when the driver called out: "What about my chocolate?"

"Your chocolate?" queried the client, greatly taken aback. Then the chauffeur explained that he was testing the honesty of his fares, and of eleven whom he had carried that morning only two had informed him that a package of chocolate was lying on the seat. The two honest folk were a sergeant leaving for Morocco and a milliner's messenger girl. "Honest people are scarce," said the philosophic chauffeur.

THEO. TINKELPAUGH BREATHED HIS LAST

VERNDALE AND VERY MUCH LIKED MAN

(From Verndale Sun)

Theodore Tinkelpaugh, one of this town's founders, having come here in the year 1877 and helped Judge Smith lay out the town, died at his home in this city Monday noon, Aug. 24th of cancer. The deceased had been enjoying fair health up until a year ago when he had gone to the hospital at Brainerd where operations were performed in an effort to lengthen his life. He returned home and for a time appeared to be improving but several weeks ago he began weakening and has failed ever since that time. His suffering was intense at times but his strong will and courage kept him alive longer than it was thought possible. In the passing of Mr. Tinkelpaugh, this town loses one of its few pioneer citizens and the only man left who could give you the full history of Verndale from its beginning, telling of the trails and troubles of those early days but always telling little of the troubles, as he was one of those men that seemed to be able to live and make a success of things under the most adverse conditions. He possessed the iron nerve of those older men and although but slight in physique, when a daring or brave act had to be accomplished, it was always "Thea" who was chosen and he could manage these things so simply and well that after they were over one imagined that there was nothing to it and quickly lost sight of the fact that it was his way of managing that made them lose their importance.

Theodore Tinkelpaugh was married to Letitia C. Clark March 9th, 1872, in Nashua, Chickasaw County, Iowa and came to Verndale in the year 1877 where he followed different occupations until 1898 when he together with twelve other men went to Alaska to seek their fortune in the gold fields, which at that time were attracting many. The hardships and adventures of this band of men were numerous. After their return here Mr. Tinkelpaugh was appointed deputy sheriff in which position he served for 24 years always performing his duty in a fearless manner and at the same time in a just and gentlemanly way. His friends were many and after his passing the value of the man will be appreciated the more as his unassuming manner made him appear of less value in this world than he really was.

Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Tinkelpaugh, Cecil Fournier of Tacoma, Wash., and Robert of Brainerd. Besides these and a devoted wife two grand children, Marlys and James Tinkelpaugh, remain to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon and burial was made in the beautiful green lawn cemetery that day.

PERMITS FOR ELK HUNTING

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 28. — Fifteen permits will be issued this fall for Elk hunting in Custer State Park, O. H. Johnson, director of the game and fish division announced today.

A fee of $100 will be charged each hunter only after the hunter has secured an Elk.

There are more elk in the Black Hills than ever before, according to Director Johnson. Animals can be secured with little trouble, he said. Every hunter will be provided with a game warden as guide. The season likely will be opened in November.

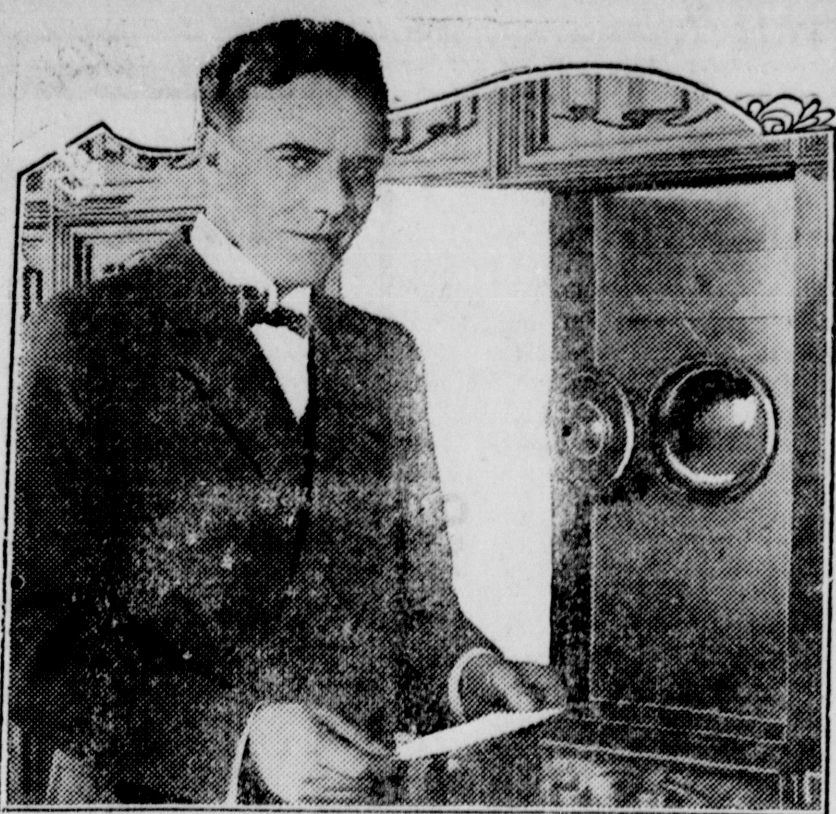

ROCKET PATCH, N. D. PACER, DIED IN IOWA

(By United Press)

Fargo, Aug. 28. — Rocket Patch, pacer, only prominent North Dakota horse entered in the races at the Minnesota State Fair next week, died at Bloomfield, Ia., Thursday according to word received here. The pacer was owned by George W. Newton, Williston who purchased it at the Savage stables. It was sired by Dan Patch ten years ago. The horse had raced every season for the past six years and won many firsts.

Isn't Nature Wonderful?

Scene from "RAFFLES" WITH HOUSE PETERS

Thrills and Action in "Raffles" Movie

A rapid mystery melodrama of stirring situations is "Raffles," the Universal-Jewel photoplay which opened at the Lyceum Theatre yesterday.

House Peters in the title role plays the amateur crackman with great skill and histrionic ability. He gives a reserved, careful delineation of the most entertaining of fiction sleuths. Although the "Raffles" stories were written more than thirty years ago by Ernest W. Hornung and Eugene Presbrey, they have continued to be popular with readers of all ages. Both young and old will revel in the exciting situations in the present production. Drama runs rampant in this King Baggot production, which has its last showings tonight.

New Barthelmess Film is His Best

As the young musical genius of "Soul Fire," his newest First National vehicle, which will be shown at the New Park tonight and Saturday, Richard Barthelmess scores the hit of his career. We put ourselves on record as saying this, even with clear and vivid memories of his fine performances in "Broken Blossoms," "Tol'able David," "The Enchanted Cottage," "Classmates" and "New Toys."

His playing of Eric Fane, the young American seeking to express himself in music, is a remarkable contrast to his recent comedy performances of the young husband in "New Toys." It might be added, here Mr. Barthelmess returns to the heights of tragedy. He achieves a number of fine moments of poignancy, of movie wistfulness and of powerful drama. His Eric Fane will be remembered when most of the celluloid performances of the current screen year are long forgotten.

"The Ten Commandments" Broke Long Run Records

The picture which broke all long run records at road show prices is coming to the New Park Sunday for a run of four days, when Cecil B. DeMille's production of "The Ten Commandments" opens an engagement there at popular prices. Playing the "two-a-day" in New York City, it broke the record of 59 weeks which had been held by "The Covered Wagon," remaining at capacity business for 62 consecutive weeks. "The Birth of a Nation" was only able to last 44 weeks on Broadway, while "Way Down East," "The Four Horsemen," and "The Thief of Bagdad" held up for a lesser period. About five million people have seen this remarkable picture since it was first shown at a two dollar scale.

Marvelous Incidents in "Bagdad" Film

Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in the amazing picture, taken from the Arabian Nights, "The Thief of Bagdad,"—a picture that is said to be away and beyond anything yet seen on the Silver Screen. This lovely story of romance and adventure abounds, according to all accounts, in happenings of astounding and unbelievable magic. Nothing like it has ever been attempted, nothing like it has ever been seen, nothing like it has ever been accomplished. This beautifully fanciful story, born of a poet's dream in Araby, was made into an entrancing reality by Douglas Fairbanks, and will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre for three days only, starting Sunday, at popular prices.

Would-Be Librarians

Not "Up" in History

Nearly thirty persons, some of them college graduates, applied for a certain position in the Cincinnati public library, but only eight scored a passing mark in the examination.

The Pathfinder's poetry machine and its relation to poetic licenses must have been uppermost in the mind for the candidate who said that one of the grants of high office bestowed on a poet laureate was "certain privileges called poetic license."

Another candidate defined Sleepy Hollow as a "hollow in Kentucky that has become the setting of several books."

Marco Polo, according to one, "was the first man to try and reach the North pole."

"Before the break with England, Henry Clay uttered those immortal words, 'Give me liberty or give me death,'" wrote another.

Madame Curie was credited with being founder of the Christian Science church. "Robinson Crusoe" was said to have been the work of Robert Louis Stevenson.

Lotteries Have Firm

Hold on All Italians

The national sport of Italy is the lottery. It is the popular sport of all classes. There are many kinds of lotteries, but the one which seems to hold the popular favor is the weekly one. The charm of this weekly lottery lies in the fact that the buyer of a ticket can play a hunch. Since all Italians are superstitious, it is only natural that each has a particular "hunch" on the winning numbers in the lottery.

The eight largest cities in the kingdom are listed and after each city five numbers appear. Should anyone have an idea that Naples would draw 4, 18, 87, 34, 52, it is simplicity itself to back your hunch. You simply walk into an agency and write your own ticket. The numbers do not have to be arranged in the same sequence as drawn. For example, in the case above cited if the purchaser had selected the numbers in inverse order, or in any other order he would still win the maximum purse.—Detroit News.

FLOOD OF BAD CHECKS HERE

Total of $400 Worth Represented in Worthless Paper Circulated

BUSINESS MEN CALL SHERIFF

Expected The Forger Will be Apprehended in a Short Time

Worthless checks totalling nearly $400, have recently been passed on local business houses by a man representing himself to be a garage owner at Jenkins. All are clear forgeries, it is said.

Louis Hostager was one of the victims, accepting a check for $300, and giving the maker of the check about $200 in change. Mr. Hostager took the precaution of calling the bank upon which the check was drawn, and was told that the garage man was good for that amount.

The J. C. Penney Company accepted a check from the same individual amounting to $13, and another business house in the city cashed a check for $25.

R. E. Wyett, manager of the J. C. Penney Company, put the matter in the hands of the sheriff, and it is believed that the forger will be apprehended within a very short time.

GAS PLANT MISHAP

New Gas Making Machine Blows Off Its Cover And Does $100 Damage

An explosion at the gas plant on Wednesday evening, did about $100 damage to equipment and building. No one was injured.

The accident occurred about 6:30 o'clock, as a new gas making machine was being tried out. The explosion tore the cover from the smoke box on the machine and threw a 200-pound bucket to the floor.

Fortunately no one was near the machine at the time, or there might have been casualties. Service in the city was uninterrupted by the explosion.

Lueck-Olson

Miss Olga Wiinelmia Olson, and Otto Ludwig Lueck were united in marriage on August 22nd, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Olson, Rev. O. Dahle performing the ceremony.

Miss Evelyn Olson, a cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Miss Adalia Lueck, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, William M. Lueck and John E. Everson.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Frank J. Woida. The marriage vows were exchanged under an arch of spruce and pink and white flowers. Little Eva and Clarissa Olson, cousins of the bride, acted as flower girls.

The bride was attired in a gown of blonde Charmeuse satin and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore powder blue pongee and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served followed by a reception in the evening and dancing.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Bierman, of Ironton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Elner, also of Ironton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Woida, of Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. August Lueck, of Villard, Mr. and Mrs. Rainerd Olson.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Lueck, of Cedar Lake, and is employed at Crosby, where the newlyweds will make their home.

Viviparous Fish

The bureau of fisheries says that black perch or the so-called surf fish is viviparous. In other words, it produces living young. Some other viviparous fish are the top minnow and several species of the tropical fish. Such fish are not considered as palatable at spawning or producing seasons as otherwise. However, it is perfectly safe to eat them.

Refusing Paid Matter, World's Affliction

F. H. O'Brien of Juel Block Says Fire Did Not Start From Overheated Gas Stove

F. H. O'Brien, who occupies Flat No. 4 in the Juel block, which was damaged by fire on Wednesday morning, states that the account as given in the Dispatch is in error, and that the conflagration instead of being caused by an overheated gas stove, resulted from defective electric wiring.

The flames started between the floor of the flat and the ceiling of the Fidelity grocery store below, said Mr. O'Brien, and were discovered between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning by Mrs. Earl O'Brien in the next flat. She smelled smoke and aroused her husband, who went to the F. H. O'Brien flat and awoke that family.

It was found that the fire had burned up through the floor close to the wall and also up between the walls. Residents of the Juel block, including the O'Brien families, Clyde Ate, B. L. Mathiesen, and J. A. Janek fought the flames for some little time before the fire department arrived, being delayed because the alarm that was sent in to the fire station misdirected the truck.

Mr. O'Brien states that he had not used his gas stove for about two weeks, and could not have been responsible for the fire in any case, since he was in bed and still asleep when the flames were discovered.

TO REMOVE TO NEW QUARTERS

G. W. Chadbourne Insurance Business on Second Floor 1st National Bank Building

CHANGE IS NECESSARY ONE

Bank is Expanding on Ground Floor And Will Occupy Quarters

G. W. Chadbourne will in the near future remove his insurance and real estate office from its ground floor location in the First National bank block to the second floor of the same building, formerly occupied by County Attorney Walter F. Wieland.

This change was made necessary because the present offices used by Mr. Chadbourne are needed by the bank, and will be added to the quarters of that institution, to be used as the bookkeeping department.

Mr. Chadbourne dislikes very much to make the change, since he has occupied the present offices for the past 17 years and the same rooms were used for the insurance business for 18 years previous to that time. However, his many interests demand larger quarters, and Mr. Chadbourne will have a suite of three rooms in his new location.

In addition to his insurance and real estate business, which has been constantly increasing, Mr. Chadbourne is also secretary of the Evergreen Cemetery Association, secretary of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, and secretary of the various Masonic orders, including Aurora Lodge, No. 100, A. F. & A. M., Brainerd Chapter, No. 42, R. A. M., and Ascalon Commandery, No. 16, Knights Templar.

The new offices are being redecorated and refurnished throughout for their new occupant. A large vault is a part of the equipment, and is one of the necessities of that business.

Mr. Chadbourne's old offices are to be connected with the banking room of the First National bank, and will be redecorated to conform to the decorations of that institution. The bank has felt the need of this additional room for some time, and will occupy it just as quickly as it can be remodeled.

Services will be held in the English language at 2:30 o'clock. There will be no morning services in the church, but the Sunday school and Bible class will meet at the usual hour.

Members and friends who have extra room in their cars are asked to remember those who may need transportation.

This is an annual affair, and it is hoped that there will be a large turnout. The invitation is meant for members and their families, and any and all friends.

THREE PROMINENT DANCES AT WEST'S

Birchdale Pavilion One Tonight, Others Sept. 1 And Sept. 4

HEDSTROM'S PLAY TONIGHT

Dot Van's Birchmont Orchestra of Bemidji Plays Next Tuesday

West's pavilion at Birchdale is featuring three prominent dances during the week commencing this evening. The other two are scheduled for Tuesday, September 1st, and Friday, September 4th.

The dance tonight promises to be well attended. The music is to be furnished by Hedstrom's big band, and Mrs. West will serve refreshments during the evening to those who so desire.

Dot Van's Birchmont orchestra of eight pieces, from Bemidji, will dispense the music at Tuesday's dance. This orchestra of talented musicians is directed by Miss Van, and has won an excellent reputation in the vicinity of Bemidji. It is enroute to the State Fair where it has been engaged to play, and Tuesday will be its one and only appearance in the Brainerd district.

On next Friday the Brainerd Ladies band will give its big dance at Birchdale. Hedstrom's orchestra furnishing the music. A special committee from the band is arranging for this event, and promises that it will be one of the outstanding social affairs of the season. Everyone is invited, and an unusually large turnout is expected. Tickets may be secured from any of the band members.

ELKS CONVENTION PICTURES AT PARK

The Elks convention pictures are shown at the New Park Theatre this Friday and Saturday and are well worth seeing. Of course, Brainerd as the convention town, forms the background for all the breezy happenings, and the convention is shown from the start-off registering at the N. P. C. A. building to the parade finale.

As the pictures were taken so as to have state-wide appeal, every one of the 24 lodges of Minnesota Elksdom will find something of interest. The pictures were taken through the courtesy of Finkelstein & Ruben of Minneapolis, Theo. L. Hays, Past Exalted Ruler of Minneapolis Lodge No. 44 and Brainerd Lodge.

The Brainerd Ladies band should see this picture, for it is given wide prominence, there being a close-up of the director, Mrs. Norman Ziebell, a duet by Clarinetist Miss Geraldine Kiebler and Cornetist Miss Nelson, and the band is taken playing at Gregory park and in the parade.

St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Owatonna, Little Falls, Brainerd, St. Cloud, are very noticeable as well as other lodges in the state. It is the first time an Elks state convention has been filmed in Minnesota and every Elks lodge should see that the pictures are shown in their home town. In fact, Finkelstein & Ruben will show them throughout their chain of 100 theatres.

TRUNK HIGHWAYS IN GOOD SHAPE

St. Paul, Aug. 28.—Minnesota trunk highways—Babcock roads marked with official numbers on yellow stars—continue in good condition in general, according to a bulletin today from the state highway department.

The bulletin states, however, that moderate rains would improve the routes and also allay the dust nuisance which has been at its worst during the past week on heavy traveled sections in light-soil and sandy districts.

The bulletin today, insofar as it refers to the Brainerd Lake region, reports:

T. H. No. 2.—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit and Moorhead—264 miles—Good, except over fair section through Staples to Wadena and on fair detour east of Hawley; paved from Duluth to Carlton.

T. H. No. 18.—Elk River, Milaca, Garrison and Brainerd—102 miles—Good, except on rough stretch south of Onamia.

T. H. No. 12.—Brainerd, Walker and Cass Lake—97 miles—Good.

T. H. No. 27.—St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd—66 miles—Paved from St. Cloud to Belle Prairie and good detour to Brainerd.

The World is taking a heavy loss each week in legitimate paid advertising which is being refused because of the conflict with local business. Last week about a page was refused which came from Wadena and Brainerd. The present week another similar sized order came from Little Falls and Brainerd. The wide awake merchants in those towns are alive to the business possibility of Staples, and recognize that advertising will bring them business, just as advertising brings results for the Staples merchants who use it.—Staples World.

F. H. O'Brien of Juel Block Says Fire Did Not Start From Overheated Gas Stove

F. H. O'Brien, who occupies Flat No. 4 in the Juel block, which was damaged by fire on Wednesday morning, states that the account as given the Dispatch was in error, and that the conflagration instead of being caused by an overheated gas stove, resulted from defective electric wiring.

The flames started between the floor of the flat and the ceiling of the Fidelity grocery store below, said Mr. O'Brien, and were discovered between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning by Mrs. Earl O'Brien in the next flat. She smelled smoke and aroused her husband, who went to the F. H. O'Brien flat and awoke that family.

It was found that the fire had burned up through the floor close to the wall and also up between the walls. Residents of the Juel block, including the O'Brien families, Clyde Ate, B. L. Mathiesen, and J. A. Janek fought the flames for some little time before the fire department arrived, being delayed because the alarm that was sent in to the fire station misdirected the truck.

Mr. O'Brien states that he had not used his gas stove for about two weeks, and could not have been responsible for the fire in any case, since he was in bed and still asleep when the flames were discovered.

TO REMOVE TO NEW QUARTERS

G. W. Chadbourne Insurance Business on Second Floor 1st National Bank Building

CHANGE IS NECESSARY ONE

Bank is Expanding on Ground Floor And Will Occupy Quarters

G. W. Chadbourne will in the near future remove his insurance and real estate office from its ground floor location in the First National bank block to the second floor of the same building, formerly occupied by County Attorney Walter F. Wieland.

This change was made necessary, because the present quarters used by Mr. Chadbourne are needed by the bank, and will be added to the quarters of that institution, to be used as the bookkeeping department.

Mr. Chadbourne dislikes very much to make the change, since he has occupied the present offices for the past 17 years and the same rooms were used for the insurance business for 18 years previous to that time. However, his many interests demand larger quarters, and Mr. Chadbourne will have a suite of three rooms in his new location.

In addition to his insurance and real estate business, which has been constantly increasing, Mr. Chadbourne is also secretary of the Evergreen Cemetery Association, secretary of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, and secretary of the various Masonic orders, including Aurora Lodge, No. 109, A. F. & A. M., Brainerd Chapter, No. 42, R. A. M., and Ascalon Commandery, No. 16, Knights Templar.

The new offices are being redecorated and refurnished throughout for their new occupant. A large vault is a part of the equipment, and is one of the necessities of that business.

Mr. Chadbourne's old offices are to be connected with the banking room of the First National bank, and will be redecorated to conform to the decorations of that institution. The bank has felt the need of this additional room for some time, and will occupy it just as quickly as it can be remodeled.

Services will be held in the English language at 2:30 o'clock. There will be no morning services in the church, but the Sunday school and Bible class will meet at the usual hour.

Members and friends who have extra room in their cars are asked to remember those who may need transportation.

This is an annual affair, and it is hoped that there will be a large turnout. The invitation is meant for members and their families, and any and all friends.

THREE PROMINENT DANCES AT WEST'S

Birchdale Pavilion One Tonight. Others Sept. 1 And Sept. 4

HEDSTROM'S PLAY TONIGHT

Dot Van's Birchmont Orchestra of Bemidji Plays Next Tuesday

West's pavilion at Birchdale is featuring three prominent dances during the week commencing this evening. The other two are scheduled for Tuesday, September 1st, and Friday, September 4th.

The dance tonight promises to be well attended. The music is to be furnished by Hedstrom's big band, and Mrs. West will serve refreshments during the evening to those who so desire.

Dot Van's Birchmont orchestra of eight pieces, from Bemidji, will disperse the music at Tuesday's dance. This orchestra of talented musicians is directed by Miss Van, and has won an excellent reputation in the vicinity of Bemidji. It is enroute to the State Fair where it has been engaged to play, and Tuesday will be its one and only appearance in the Brainerd district.

On next Friday the Brainerd Ladies band will give its big dance at Birchdale, Hedstrom's orchestra furnishing the music. A special committee from the band is arranging for this event, and promises that it will be one of the outstanding social affairs of the season. Everyone is invited, and an unusually large turnout is expected. Tickets may be secured from any of the band members.

ELKS CONVENTION PICTURES AT PARK

The Elks convention pictures are shown at the New Park Theatre this Friday and Saturday and are well worth seeing. Of course, Brainerd as the convention town, forms the background for all the breezy happenings, and the convention is shown from the start-off registering at the N. P. C. A. building to the parade finale.

As the pictures were taken so as to have state-wide appeal, every one of the 24 lodges of Minnesota Elksdom will find something of interest. The pictures were taken through the courtesy of Finkelstein & Ruben of Minneapolis, Theo. L. Hays, Past Exalted Ruler of Minneapolis Lodge No. 44 and Brainerd Lodge.

The Brainerd Ladies band should see this picture, for it is given wide prominence, there being a close-up of the director, Mrs. Norman Ziebell, a duet by Clarinetist Miss Geraldine Kiebler and Cornetist Miss Nelson, and the band is taken playing at Gregory park and in the parade.

St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Owatonna, Little Falls, Brainerd, St. Cloud, are very noticeable as well as other lodges in the state. It is the first time an Elks state convention has been filmed in Minnesota and every Elks lodge should see that the pictures are shown in their home town. In fact, Finkelstein & Ruben will show them throughout their chain of 100 theatres.

IF JUNK HIGHWAYS IN GOOD SHAPE

St. Paul, Aug. 28. — Minnesota trunk highways—Babeck roads marked with official numbers on yellow stars—continue in good condition in general, according to a bulletin today from the state highway department.

The bulletin states, however, that moderate rains would improve the routes and also allay the dust nuisance which has been at its worst during the past week on heavy traveled sections in light-soil and sandy districts.

The bulletin today, insofar as it refers to the Brainerd Lake region, reports:

T. H. No. 2.—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit and Moorhead—264 miles—Good, except over fair section through Staples to Wadena and on fair detour east of Hawley; paved from Duluth to Carlton.

BUSH BLANKS WASHINGTON WITH ONE HIT

BASEBALL PLAYERS SUBMIT TO INJURIES

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor) New York, Aug. 28.—There can be no doubt that professional baseball players are sometimes seriously hurt in the pursuit of their game but at the same time there are many cases that would indicate that ball players are coddled too much for strong men who are supposed to be trained into perfect condition.

Sprained ankles and charley-horses usually take a ball player out of the line-up for extended periods during which they are allowed to stay on the bench or take the rest cure at home.

You can take your own guess what would happen to a ball player if he had a manager or a trainer like Knute Rockne, the Notre Dame football coach. "A team," Rockne says, "should never be coddled in regard to their physical condition but rather should be made to accept a Spartan attitude. Every man, however, should report an injury and injuries should receive prompt attention."

"In case of a sprained ankle put on a Glimstead bandage immediately and, leave on for two days or longer, making the man walk on the foot as much as possible. This is rather heroic treatment as the man will not sleep for a night or two, but it invariably results in a cure in three days."

Frank Wallace, a New York sports writer, who was a student at Notre Dame, tells of an instance when one of the varsity basketball players suffered a severe ankle sprain in a game. Instead of calling for a cab he had the ankle bandaged and he walked from South Bend to the university. The injury was so painful and his progress was so slow that it took him three hours to hobble home. But he was ready for practice in three days.

Concerning the charley-horse, the bane of the ball player, Rockne says: "Charley-horses are of two kinds: first, the one produced by a hard impact; second, a sprained or pulled muscle, caused by stopping suddenly. The one caused by hard impact is a bruised muscle and blood is allowed to escape in the surrounding tissue. The best cure for this is a massage and heat. The heat can be put on from a therapeutic lamp or by a diathermic heat from a high frequency machine. In case you have neither, put two layers of tight tape across the charley-horse AND MAKE THE PLAYER GET OUT AND WORK IT OUT."

Yes, you can take your own guess on what a professional baseball player would think of Rockne's cures!

In the course of one hour in a game, the football player gets more bumping, kicking and knocking than a baseball player gets in twenty games, but it is advanced ideas of training that keeps the injury list low.

MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL PROSPECTS

Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—Minnesota football prospects took a nice boost today when it was learned that Fat Bredemus, the East Side behemoth, is back in school and presumably has become eligible by his attendance at summer session. Bredemus is the man who got up in a Chicago street-car to give three Polish wrestling champions his seat.

As a member of the freshman squad two years ago Bredemus had to be placed on the sidelines during several scrimmages because he made it so tough for the first team. He is a lineman, which is the sort of thing Minnesota needs this fall. If he looks as good to Coach Spears as he did to Coach Spaulding he ought to get a chance in some of the choice fractures.

Fat left Minnesota a year ago and attended Creighton for a while, but came back to Minnesota in time to meet eligibility requirements. He says there is no place like home except the opponents goal line.

It is reported that Knute Rockne said, "You and who else?" when Bredemus told him he hoped to be

WALTER JOHNSON TOUCHED UP FOR 9 HITS BY ST. LOUIS

JOHNSON MADE ONLY HIT OFF BUSH, GETTING TWO-BAGGER

BUSH WAS AIDED BY AN AIR-TIGHT DEFENSE BEHIND HIM

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Bullet Joe Bush allowed only one hit and the St. Louis Browns blanked the Washington Senators, 5 to 0, in the final game of the series for three straight victories.

The veteran Walter Johnson, who had been hastily summoned from his home at Coffeyville, Kan., to take up the pitching burden, allowed nine safeties. Johnson made the only hit off Bush when he doubled in the sixth inning. Both starting pitchers finished the game.

The Browns' first run came in the fifth when Robertson tripled and scored on H. Rice's double.

The locals staged a batting rally in the eighth which resulted in four tallies. Sisler singled, advanced to second on Robertson's sacrifice and scored on McManus' double. McManus scored on Bennett's single. Hargrave tripled, scoring Bennett. Then Robertson singled, scoring Hargrave.

Bush was aided by a tight defense. Manager Stanley Harris of the Senators received no word from President Ban Johnson regarding a suspension for his row with Umpire Owens yesterday and was at his position at second base. Bush walked three and fanned two.

GERTRUDE EDERLE IN ANOTHER TRY

WAITING SATURDAY OR SUNDAY FOR ANOTHER CHANNEL SWIM

(By United Press) Griseze, France, Aug. 28.—Miss Gertrude Ederle, American swimming star is ready to battle with the English channel's switching tide for the second time this season.

Trained down to fine form by "Old Bill" Burgess, she is now waiting only for the morrow or the Sabbath to leap off from the "gray nose" of France and stroke further for the chalky cliffs on the other side. "This time she will count on her spirit as a great factor in winning the title of the first woman to cheat the treacherous channel and swim to Dover."

I. Helmey, the Egyptian swimmer who has been the friend in need for women swimmers when they had to be hauled from the channel beaten and exhausted, was hoping to get away today for his attempt at crossing.

BOBBY JONES PLANS WINTER PREPARATION

(By United Press) Atlanta, Aug. 28.—Bobby Jones, premier Dixie golfer, took his thrilling defeat at the hands of Willie MacFarland in the national open championship at Worcester, Mass., very seriously and has promised his admirers that he will make amends by putting in the winter months preparing for the 1926 campaign.

His game at Worcester was a bit off and not up to par considering past performances. The amateur champion took his game lightly and some of his shots resulted from downright carelessness, he admitted later.

"I'm going to be in Sarasota, Fla., much of the time from November until next spring," Bobby said. "And for the first time I am going to play some serious golf and make a real effort to get back in shape for the summer campaign and the two big championships of 1926."

Bobby will practice on the newly built course of the Writfield Estates country club at Sarasota, said to be one of the finest in Florida. Tommy Armour has been made professional at the course and with Walter Hagen over at Pasadena, Bobby expects to have some lively battles in the fall and winter.

seph Horn, Chicago, one up in an extra hole match at the White Bear Yacht club today.

Mrs. Higbie easily defeated Mrs. Dave Gaut, Memphis, three up and two to play.

B. A. C. CELLAR CHAMPIONS IN HARD STRAITS

WENT DOWN TO INGLOURIOUS DEFEAT AT WORKMEN'S HANDS

The B. A. C. cellar champions went down to an inglorious defeat last night at the hands of the Workmen, to the tune of 4-0. The score does not tell all the story. It was a listless contest, all the way through, on the part of the losers.

By winning last night, the Workmen went into a tie for first place in the standings of the second half, and a championship game will be staged Monday night for the first honors of this half. The Y. M. C. A. and Workmen have each won six and lost three. The winner of Monday's game will play the Elks, winners of first half, for the championship of the city and the possession of the Alderman-Maghan trophy cup.

Brick's work at second for the B. A. C. outshone the playing of any other player on the field, he accepting eleven chances without a muff. The third inning was all his own, taking two assists and one put out, going back of second to pull down a Texas leaguer for the last out.

Leith pitched nicely for the Workmen, allowing but two hits, and fanning four.

The Workmen played errorless ball, while the B. A. C. had six misplays chalked up against them, six players each making one.

By losing this game, Soderlund tumbled from a high place among the leading pitchers, and lost his chance to finish the season on top.

BUSH BLANKS WASHINGTON WITH ONE HIT

BASEBALL PLAYERS SUBMIT TO INJURIES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Aug. 28.—There can be no doubt that professional baseball players are sometimes seriously hurt in the pursuit of their game but at the same time there are many cases that would indicate that ball players are coddled too much for strong men who are supposed to be trained into perfect condition.

Sprained ankles and charley-horses usually take a ball player out of the line-up for extended periods during which they are allowed to stay on the bench or take the rest cure at home.

You can take your own guess what would happen to a ball player if he had a manager or a trainer like Knute Rockne, the Notre Dame football coach. "A team," Rockne says, "should never be coddled in regard to their physical condition but rather should be made to accept a Spartan attitude. Every man, however, should report an injury and injuries should receive prompt attention.

"In case of a sprained ankle put on a Glimstead bandage immediately and leave on for two days or longer, making the man walk on the foot as much as possible. This is rather heroic treatment as the man will not sleep for a night or two, but it invariably results in a cure in three days."

Frank Wallace, a New York sports writer, who was a student at Notre Dame, tells of an instance when one of the varsity basketball players suffered a severe ankle sprain in a game. Instead of calling for a cab he had the ankle bandaged and he walked from South Bend to the university. The injury was so painful and his progress was so slow that it took him three hours to hobble home. But he was ready for practice in three days.

Concerning the charley-horse, the bone of the ball player, Rockne says: "Charley-horses are of two kinds: first, the one produced by a hard impact; second, a sprained or pulled muscle, caused by stopping suddenly. The one caused by hard impact is a bruised muscle and blood is allowed to escape in the surrounding tissue. The best cure for this is a message and heat. The heat can be put on from a therapeutic lamp or by a diathermic heat from a high frequency machine. In case you have neither, put two layers of tight tape across the charley-horse AND MAKE THE PLAYER GET OUT AND WORK IT OUT."

Yes, you can take your own guess on what a professional baseball player would think of Rockne's cures!

In the course of one hour in a game, the football player gets more bumping, kicking and knocking than a baseball player gets in twenty games, but it is advanced ideas of training that keeps the injury list low.

MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL PROSPECTS

Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—Minnesota football prospects took a nice boost today when it was learned that Fat Bredemus, the East Side behemoth, is back in school and presumably has become eligible by his attendance at summer session. Bredemus is the man who got up in a Chicago street-car to give three Polish wrestling champions his seat.

As a member of the freshman squad two years ago Bredemus had to be placed on the sidelines during several scrimmages because he made it so tough for the first team. He is a lineman, which is the sort of thing Minnesota needs this fall. If he looks as good to Coach Spears as he did to Coach Spaulding he ought to get a chance in some of the choice fractures.

Fat left Minnesota a year ago and attended Creighton for a while, but came back to Minnesota in time to meet eligibility requirements. He says there is no place like home except the opponents goal line.

It is reported that Knute Rockne said, "You and who else?" when Bredemus told him he hoped to be in the game against Notre Dame this fall. To which Fat neatly replied, "If any."

Additional report: That Bredemus is sure to be eligible because no one on the campus would dare tell him he wasn't, if he wasn't.

"Tiny" Drill, Bill Kaminski and Bill Meili are another trio from last year's pony squad who are expected to take the field with a crowd when the official practice gong intones. Those who have watched them at practice say they are from the west, where a man's a man if not more. They will bear watching but not trifling with.

The only flaw in pre-season football dope to date seems to be that nothing has been said of the "creeping bent" or tee grass that was planted on the playing field last year and which remained an almost unanimous subject of conversation until it finally, with a mighty effort covered the entire gridiron. Professor Otto Zelner, advance manager for the creeping bent's act, was out of town last week and could not be reached for a statement but Joe, the groundskeeper, announced that the turf will be all that a Sir Barton could desire.

Joe says its all right for the grass to creep but it would be foolish for it to bend of its own effort, for plenty will happen to bend it between now and November 21.

Priority sales for the North Dakota game will close Sept. 1. Advance mail orders for other games will be held open up to two weeks before the game for regular orders and three weeks before the game for those who are entitled to priority.

WALTER JOHNSON TOUCHED UP FOR 9 HITS BY ST. LOUIS

JOHNSON MADE ONLY HIT OFF BUSH, GETTING TWO-BAGGER

BUSH WAS AIDED BY AN AIR-TIGHT DEFENSE BEHIND HIM

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Bullet Joe Bush allowed only one hit and the St. Louis Browns blanked the Washington Senators, 5 to 0, in the final game of the series for three straight victories.

The veteran Walter Johnson, who had been hastily summoned from his home at Coffeyville, Kan., to take up the pitching burden, allowed nine safeties. Johnson made the only hit off Bush when he doubled in the sixth inning. Both starting pitchers finished the game.

The Browns' first run came in the fifth when Robertson tripled and scored on H. Rice's double.

The locals staged a batting rally in the eighth which resulted in four tallies. Sisler singled, advanced to second on Robertson's sacrifice and scored on McManus' double. McManus scored on Bennett's single. Hargrave tripled, scoring Bennett. Then Robertson singled, scoring Hargrave.

Bush was aided by a tight defense. Manager Stanley Harris of the Senators received no word from President Ban Johnson regarding a suspension for his row with Umpire Owens yesterday and was at his position at second base.

Bush walked three and fanned two.

GERTRUDE EDERLE IN ANOTHER TRY

WAITING SATURDAY OR SUNDAY FOR ANOTHER CHANNEL SWIM

(By United Press) Grimsby, France, Aug. 28.—Miss Gertrude Ederle, American swimming star is ready to battle with the English channel's switching tide for the second time this season.

Trained down to fine form by "Old Bill" Burgess, she is now waiting only for the morrow or the Sabbath to leap off from the "gray nose" of France and stroke further for the chalky cliffs on the other side. "This time she will count on her spirit as a great factor in winning the title of the first woman to cheat the treacherous channel and swim to Dover."

I. Helmey, the Egyptian swimmer who has been the friend in need for women swimmers when they had to be hauled from the channel beaten and exhausted, was hoping to get away today for his attempt at crossing.

BOBBY JONES PLANS WINTER PREPARATION

(By United Press) Atlanta, Aug. 28.—Bobby Jones, premier Dixie golfer, took his thrilling defeat at the hands of Willie MacFarland in the national open championship at Worcester, Mass., very seriously and has promised his admirers that he will make amends by putting in the winter months preparing for the 1926 campaign.

His game at Worcester was a bit off and not up to par considering past performances. The amateur champion took his game lightly and some of his shots resulted from down-right carelessness, he admitted later.

"I'm going to be in Sarasota, Fla., much of the time from November until next spring," Bobby said. "And for the first time I am going to play some serious golf and make a real effort to get back in shape for the summer campaign and the two big championships of 1926."

Bobby will practice on the newly built course of the Writfield Estates country club at Sarasota, said to be one of the finest in Florida. Tommy Armour has been made professional at the course and with Walter Hagen over at Pasadena, Bobby expects to have some lively battles in the fall and winter.

seph Horn, Chicago, one up in an extra hole match at the White Bear Yacht club today.

Mrs. Higbie easily defeated Mrs. Dave Gaut, Memphis, three up and two to play.

B. A. C. CELLAR CHAMPIONS IN HARD STRAITS

WENT DOWN TO INGLOUSIOUS DEFEAT AT WORKMEN'S HANDS

The B. A. C. cellar champions went down to an inglorious defeat last night at the hands of the Workmen, to the tune of 4-0. The score does not tell all the story. It was a listless contest all the way through, on the part of the losers.

By winning last night, the Workmen went into a tie for first place in the standings of the second half, and a championship game will be staged Monday night for the first honors of this half. The Y. M. C. A. and Workmen have each won six and lost three. The winner of Monday's game will play the Elks, winners of the first half, for the championship of the city and the possession of the Alderman-Maghan trophy cup.

Brick's work at second for the B. A. C. outshone the playing of any other player on the field, he accepting eleven chances without a muff. The third inning was all his own, taking two assists and one put out, going back of second to pull down a Texas leaguer for the last out.

Leith pitched nicely for the Workmen, allowing but two hits, and fanning four.

The Workmen played errorless ball, while the B. A. C. had six misplays chalked up against them, six players each making one.

By losing this game, Soderlund tumbled from a high place among the leading pitchers, and lost his chance to finish the season on top.
